Friends of Heritage Scheme Notes of Application

Objective

The Antiquities and Monuments Office (AMO) has received encouraging responses from the public since the launch of the Friends of Heritage (FOH) Scheme in 1997. Members can join the wide range of activities and programmes AMO specially designed for them, including lectures, workshops, field visits and training programmes themed on archaeology, built heritage and heritage conservation, and/or join as AMO's volunteers. Some members have even become our docents after training to help promote public awareness of the importance of heritage conservation.

Target participants

Hong Kong residents aged 18 or above, and interested in learning and promoting local heritage.

Becoming member

Membership will be obtained after submission of the application form.

Notes of Application

1. Starting from the International Day for Monuments and Sites on 18 April 2022, the FOH Scheme is open for application all year round.
2. Welcome to submit application through the e-form on AMO's website. Alternatively, you can send your completed application form to AMO by email (enews@amo.gov.hk), fax (2377 9792) or post.
3. FOH activities will be promoted through the FOH webpage and email.
4. Unless otherwise specified, all FOH activities will be conducted in Cantonese.
5. If the quotas of the FOH activities exceed, participants will be selected by lot drawing. If there are places left after application deadlines, they will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.
6. AMO reserves the rights of final decision on the arrangements of activities for the FOH Scheme.
7. Personal data provided in this form will be used for arranging programmes. All applicants have the rights to request access to and make amendments of personal data as stated in this form in accordance with Sections 18 & 22 and Principle 6 of Schedule 1 to the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. Please contact Assistant Curator II (Education Activities) 2 on 2208 4440.
8. Enquiries: Please call 2208 4407 from Mondays to Fridays during office hours.
